recolving their pay at a rate of exchange more favorable than the present one, will be secured to the Martive Troops, by the following arrangement, which His Lordship in Council takes this opportunity of announcing for general information.

8. From calculations made by order of the Supreme Government, it appears that the Madras Troops of every description, serving in the Deccan currency, at the existing rates of exchange, viz., la Hyderahad Rupees at the rate of (111) One Hundred and Eleven for (100) One Hundred Madras Rupees, and in Nagpore Rupees at (107) One Hundred and Seven for (100) One Hundred Sanaut or Company's Rupees; the average latrinsic par of the Coin at present issued to them, being, as compared with Company's Rupees, (121) One Hundred and Twenlyone of the former, and (117) One Hundred and Seven-teen of the latter, to the hundred.

4. In such a case the obvious mode, as well as measure of relief, is, an equitable adjustment of the rate of Exchange at which the local currency shall be issued to the Troops; and, as the loss sustained by each of the Deccan Subsidiary Forces appears to be the same, viz. 10 per Cent., the Right Han'ble the Governor General of India in Council is piessed to authorize an addition to that extent, in both cases, to the present rate of exchange, subject, however, to such future modification as any change of the local currency, or in the intrinsic value of the currency now used for Issue, may render necessary.

If I numerous communications which have been addressed to Captain Grindley from all parts of India, conveying the most flattering approbation of the manner in which his duties to his constituents have hitherto been performed, and the most cordial assurances of support to the new Firm, commenced in November, 1898, are felt by him to call for a public expression of gratitude.

Orders were immediately given for the Troops to get under arms, and I proceeded to select the most favorable spot for a position to receive the enemy; a short time prior to which some low hills in the distance were observed through Telescopes to be covered with Troops, both Horse and Fost, distant about three miles, I immediately placed the Detachment in the chosen position, and then awalted the arrival of the enemy, it being quite out of my power, from the party of Troops and magnitude of the Corvey, for one to act otherwise than on their elemine.

About half-past 5 p. at the enemy were observed to form and advance to the affack in one dense mass—when about nine hundred yards distant the two six-pounders opened upon them with beautiful precision and effect, on which the meeny separated into three distinct columns and advanced in the most could and deliberate manner, with the evident intention of making a simultaneous attack upon both my finite and coutre, which was met with the greatest coolness and gallantry by the small Detachment, in which they were assisted by a small party of Florse under Chalon Khan, who had taken up a position on a alight eminence for the protection of my left. The lass on the part of the Esseny must have been very considerable, as sixty-four bedies and six or seven Horses were left dead on the field; and I have every reason to suppose that from the time of their retreat, till a little before daybreak they were employed in removing their killed and wounded who did not fall in the immediate vicinity of my position.—I am led to this conclusion from the circumstance of numerous moving lights having been seen throughout the night, and also from the reports of the inhabitants of the country. On being repulsed, the Enemy withdrew to the left bank of the Turnuck and moved off about day-break on the morning of the 30th, since which I have been unable to gain any information relative to their movements, except that it is currently reported that they have all dispersed.

To Lieutenant Waterfield, Acting Adjutant to the Regiment, Lieutenant Colonel Wymer also feels kimself mitch indebted for the Arricas side afforded by him, and the expeditions manner; which the sudden calls for re-informanceut were so readily obeyed.

After 3) hours of hard fighting, the desperate and continued attack of the Buomy, favored by the nature of ground, was repulsed on all points by the small party of Troops appointed for the Corvoy's protection, consisting of 2 Horse Artillery Guns under Licatement Hawkins, a Wing of the Shah's 1st Caraby under the Command of Captain Lesson, a Detachment of 21 men of the Bengal Sappers, and 4 Companies of the 38th Regiment Bengal Native Infantry. They renewed the attack as circumstances to favor their designs, till at length they finally with-drew on the frustration of all their well-concerted plans for the extermination of the little band apposed to them, which was employed in the very arduous duty of defending itself, and the extensive Couvoy committed to its charge

Messas. GRINDLAY, CHRISTIAN, & MATTHEWS.

THE numerous communications which have been addressed to Captain Grindley from all parts of India, conveying the most flattering approbation of the manner in which his duties to his constituents have hitherto been performed, and the most cordial assurances of support to the new Firm, commenced in November, 1838, are felt by him to call for a public expression of gratitude.

In thus offering his thanks for the extensive and honorable patronage long afforded to the Establishment under his sole management, and now so kindly promised to the Firm of GRINDLAY, CHRISTIAN AND MATTHEWS, he begs to assure his numerous friends and well wishers, that the efforts of himself and his partners will be unremittingly directed to merit the continued confidence reposed in them by the various branches of the Indian community, both at home and abroad.

The high character attained by the Establishment tuder his superintendence has been the result of many years' perseverance,-Its pretentions were tested by experience, and the value of the facilities which it afforded for the disputch of business, triedand vouched for by a large proportion of those whose engagements led them to India. It is acknowledged with pride, that success followed exertion, and the means have thus been obtained of increasing the resources of the Establishment and greatly enlarging the circle of its unefulness

In conclusion, Mesers. GRINDLAY, CHRISTIAN AND MATTHEWS have only to remind their Subscribers and the Public at large, that they continue to transact every description of business connected with India and the Colonies.
